Emphasis and focus in 2020

Continuing our theme of Blessed to IMPACT from 2019, our emphasis for 2020 was “Kingdom IMPACT”. We believe that God has blessed us in order for us to impact our world with His kingdom. We sought to pursue this mandate in the same vain as we did the previous year as follows:

- As Disciples of Christ. By equipping our members to be disciples of Christ
- In the community. Through a focus on our immediate communities where we gather to worship every week
- To the nations. By fulfilling our global mandate of world missions

Our emphasis was pursued through our UK corporate activities and our Main active components as outlined in this document.

Key text used for our emphasis throughout 2020 was found in Matthew 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

UK corporate activities

- Prayer and fasting for twenty-one days – 1st to 21st March and 1st to 21st July
- Anniversary weekend from 20th to 22nd March
- Refresh 2020 from 24th to 26th July
- Mission 2020 from 23rd to 25th October

All these events were hosted online due to the COVID 19 pandemic resulting in a national lockdown in the UK and around the world.

Major challenges in 2020

COVID 19 proved to be a major challenge for CLF and the rest of the world in 2020. However CLF enjoyed the grace and favour of God during this period and experienced a greater sense of unity and divine provision.

CLF continues to hold the General Overseer in prayer due to his current diagnosis of Cancer. We continue to stand with him and his family throughout this season.

Aside from this, beyond the normal pastoral and administrative issues of an organisation like ours, there were no other major challenges that we had to address.

CLF Global 2021 – The Kingdom of God

Key Text for 2021: Matthew 6:33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Continuing our theme of Kingdom IMPACT of the previous year (2020), our emphasis for 2021 is “The kingdom of God”. We pursue this:

- By equipping our members to be disciples of Christ. Our focus on discipleship is to develop our members into leaders who influence their world and the Church as obedient followers of Jesus Christ.
- By impacting our communities. Our aim is to see our local Churches impacting the immediate community where they gather to worship every week.
- By fulfilling our world missions mandate nationally and globally. Our goal is to empower every member of CLF to be involved in world missions through prayer, financial giving and/or going on missions.

What is the kingdom of God?

As already emphasized and taught last year, the kingdom of God is wherever God reigns. It is the will and dominion of God demonstrated in any given context where Jesus Christ His Son is honoured as Lord and king.

The kingdom of God is not of this world and should therefore not be expected to conform to its rudiments. As the following verse highlights, it is spiritual in nature and all embracing:

Romans 14:17 for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

- Righteousness relates to that which is approved of by God
- Peace speaks of that which is in harmony with God and His will
- Joy in the Holy Spirit infers delighting in the things of the Spirit

The kingdom of God is essentially supernatural. It is not empty words or mere talk! It is not philosophy or principles with no teeth. It is miraculous and powerful:

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power.

Anytime one aims to demonstrate the kingdom of God, they should expect it to become evident through supernatural tokens to those they are ministering to.

Responsibilities and functions within the Trust

City Faith Ministries Trust (CFMT) functions as the umbrella charity responsible for CLF's Head office, corporate initiatives, new ministry initiatives outside of a local Church covering, new authorised Church plants, and any CLF Church without its own charitable or CIO status.

These responsibilities are further administered under the leadership of CLF's Global Executive Board (General Presbytery) and CFMT Board of Trustees, and involve the following:

- Oversight of CLF's mission, vision strategy, doctrinal and lifestyle statements
- Corporate events in UK and worldwide

- Existing CLF buildings in the UK
- Churches and ministries without their own legal bodies. These however should not be financially reliant on CFMT Central Funds
- Corporate missions initiatives sanctioned through CFMT
- Ordination and apostolic cover for all CLF ordained ministers
- CLTI (Bible School) worldwide
- Spiritual oversight of CLM Trust (Mission's arm) which has its own charitable status and board of Trustees

3. Income generated through corporate events, CLF initiatives including publications, media, CLTI, and overseas missions initiatives
4. Any legitimate legal avenues that does not conflict with our values or constitution

Monies raised will go towards providing financial support required to administrate the CFMT responsibilities outlined above.

CLF recognised Churches

All CLF Churches are formally and publicly recognised by the Global Executive (General Presbytery) and the indigenous national board of Elders as an established CLF Church when they are able to meet the following criterion:

1. They recognise the apostolic leadership of the Global Executive (General Presbytery) and are willing to submit to their leadership as outlined in CLF's constitution.
2. They have been formally received by a CLF ordained elder who ensures that all required protocols are being observed as is practically possible.
3. They submit to the tenets and governance outlined CLF's constitution.
4. They acknowledge their membership of CLF on their website, letterheads, formal documents and include the CLF name in all their publicity where appropriate.
5. They have their own pastor/ leader and are submitted to the CLF Global Executive and the CLF national board of elders based in that country.
6. They are financially responsible for all their affairs and are willing to fulfil their financial obligations to CLF central fund in their respective countries:

A recommended 10% of tithes from all local Churches in each nation to be sent to the indigenous national CLF central fund within that nation.

7. They have a formal membership of 15-35 or more adults.

Where a Church is in a community with less than 100 people, it will be up to the discretion of the overseeing CLF ordained Elder to recognise them as a CLF Church.

Formal members of a CLF Church are those members who have completed CLF's membership orientation course and have received the right-hand of fellowship.

Until the above are in place, groups looking for CLF membership may function as a multisite or satellite Church of an already established CLF Church. They should operate under the legal status of that CLF Church providing them spiritual cover and oversight. They would not need to register as a charity or any other form of legal entity. This is so as to avoid the associated administrative responsibilities.
